

I am a UU because I want join hand with others to create a community where we grow spiritually, where we support one another, and where we work together to create a world in which everyone matters, everyone is free, everyone is respected, and everyone live in in peace.

- Rev. Peter Morales, UUA President

Our denomination is unique because every UU has the right to develop a personal philosophy of life, without being told what to believe. We can learn from philosophies and religions, and also from science and the arts...And no matter what we do believe about theology or philosophy, we try to live a good life and leave the world better than we found it.

- Rev. Chris Schriner

UUUs have different religious beliefs but share a common faith. We know that life is holy, that each person is worthy, and that, when we join together, to plan the seeds of love, the world blossoms.

- Erik Resly

Both Unitarian and Universalism sprang from liberal Christianity. Unitarianism speaks to the nature of God as One: Holy, Transcendent, Immanent, Whole, Mystery. Universalism speaks to the nature of our relationships – with the Divine, with ourselves, with each other, and with the planet which we call home.

- Michelle Buhite

The historical organizing principle of Unitarianism was the unity of God, not the trinity. The historical organizing principle of Universalism was the goodness of God, not the judgment of God. Unitarian: God is one. Universalist: God is love.

- Rev. Kathleen Hepler

We are a church of many beliefs, worshipping as one community on making this a better world.

-Rev Steve J Crump

Our faith is not interested in saving your soul – we're here to help you unfold the awesome soul you already have.

-Andrea Lerner

Our faith celebrates the beauty, diversity, and goodness of all creation – all life. We believe in love and compassion for all – and in using our best learning to make the best choices we can.

- Natalie Fenimore

In our faith, God is not a given, God is a question. God is not defined for us, God is defined by us.

- Rev Forrest Church

Instead of creed, we share a spirit and vision of radical inclusivity, individual agency, and social justice. It is a safe space to stand out, stand up, and change your mind, particularly during life's transitions. We embrace personal discovery and growth through learning, engagement, and service. Our only doctrine is love.
